Dear ENGAGE 2016 Hamilton attendees,

If you recently registered, please click [here to read previous conference updates].

Well there's only two more sleeps to go till the conference! Packing and preparation is almost done, and we're all very much looking forward to Friday and Saturday. Just a couple of quick things, and then there will be one last conference update tomorrow and then we'll be up in Hamilton with you all!

Here goes...

BAKING/MORNING & AFTERNOON TEA: Can you please let us know if you are able to bring some baking/food to share for morning/afternoon tea - we have one family who have offered so far - this just helps with knowing how much we need to buy from supermarket on the way from Auckland to Hamilton - thanks heaps!

OTHER CONFERENCE HELP NEEDED: If anyone is available to help with the following, please let us know - thanks!

- Helping put out morning/afternoon tea
- Quick clean up following conference end (3pm) - this will be a great help as we need to leave by 4pm to catch our plane!
- Sound desk assistance - if anyone has some experience with this, and you want to help, please let us know.

ENGAGE SPEAKERS: The speakers for ENGAGE 2016 (who will actually be there in physical form!!!) are all Home-Educating parents too - here's a bit more about them...
